

SCIENCE BASED INTERVIEW AND INTERROGATION

"THE SCIENCE OF WHAT WORKS"

MAY 11TH & 12TH, 2023
SOUTH LAKE TAHOE

Training Purpose:

An opportunity for Sheriffs, District Attorneys, Police Chiefs, Chief Investigators, Executive Law Enforcement Management, Interview and Interrogation Instructors, Prosecutors and Investigative Supervisors to meet and hear from leading researchers and practitioners from around the world in the field of Interview and Interrogation.

Presenters (Partial List):

Laurence Alison: Director of Centre for Critical and Major Incident (CAMI) at the University of Liverpool. He currently provides training to the FBI, CIA, DOD, and British Army in the ORBIT framework for rapport-based interrogation methods. He was a key psychological advisor on over 450 critical and major incident debriefs to include: 7/7 bombings, the Sharm El Sheik Attacks, the poisoning of Alexander Litvinenko, and the preparations for the London Olympics.

Emily Alison: Currently works as a research associate at the University of Liverpool, who jointly developed the ORBIT framework for Advanced High Value Detainee Interviewing. She has observed over 800 hours of U.K. police interviews with terrorists, covering a range of ideologies including: Al Qaeda, Right-Wing, and ISIS.

Jim Smyth: Over 30 years of experience as a major crime investigator, forensic interviewer, and criminal profiler with the Ontario Provincial Police, commanding operations in Central Ontario. He is an exceptional police leader with extensive international experience providing quality law enforcement instruction.

Aldert Vrij: In 1991, he received his Ph.D. from Vrije Universiteit in Amsterdam and currently is the Professor of Applied Social Psychology. He has produced more than 600 publications and more than 25,000 citations. He is the author of Detecting Lies and Deceit: Pitfalls and Opportunities which is a comprehensive overview of research into (non)verbal and physiological deception and lie detection.

Several California investigators who have been trained in and used SBI.

Approved for POST reimbursement plan IV

For more information on content and presenters please contact Vern Pierson at vern.pierson@edcda.us

Sponsoring Agency:
El Dorado County District
Attorney's Office

Training Site and Host Hotel:

Harvey's Lake Tahoe

18 US-50, Stateline, NV 89449

Registration Information:

Registration is free. Due to limited space, you must register with Savannah Broddrick at savannah.broddrick@edcda.us or (530) 621-6484 to reserve your spot for the training.

Once registered with Savannah she will provide the room block code and link for booking.

For additional information contact Jeff Dreher at jeff.dreher@edcda.us or (530) 621-6431